

Springfield Democratic Committee

FALL 2026

The Springfield Democrats gathered at the historic Samuel Levis home in mid-September for their annual cocktail party, this year with a Wild West murder-mystery theme. Join us for more fun events like this: springfield.dems@gmail.com

Dear Neighbors,

This summer, we welcomed a new chapter for our committee. After years of dedicated leadership, Erin Kennedy-Rogers stepped down as chair to join us as a member. Erin's commitment to Springfield and to our Democratic values has meant the world to this community, and we're grateful she'll still be at the table. She's earned some rest — and we're glad she's not going far.

I'm Rose Fasciocco, and I'm honored to serve as your new chair. A Springfield resident for more than 27 years, my husband and I have built businesses here, raised our sons here, and volunteered in this community for as long as I can remember. I bring the same values to this committee that I've brought to everything else: communication, transparency, and accountability.

There is real momentum right now — in Springfield, across the Commonwealth, and across the nation. We expect to be celebrating a blue wave this November, but when that happens, the real work begins. Whether you're frustrated by DC politics or feeling unheard at the local level, this committee is a place where you'll find like-minded neighbors and meaningful ways to take action.

Getting involved can be as simple as an hour-long meeting once a month, or as fun as marching in the July 4th parade with Rep. O'Mara, joining us for trivia night, or a murder mystery social.
